Comments		Andrew does good work, but he takes on more work that he thinks he can handle, he does need to learn that we are here to help	Theoron does his work but needs to interact with us more.	I like Kelsey's personality, she very willing to help where she can. I like her attitude, and she does her best to contribute.	Royce over all is interacts with the groups, engages on conversations and is excited about the project. Royce does lack some communication skills, I do wish he would use slack more to update us on what he's doing.
